

2cLAST EDITION*2c

THE DAY BOOK

An Adless Newspaper, Daily Except Sunday

VOL. 6, NO. 181

Chicago, Monday, April 30, 1917

398

JOFFRE HERE SUNDAY

Washington, April 30.—French and British commissioners will visit Chicago and middle west. Definitely decided today. Enroute the commissioners will stop at Springfield, Ill., to pay homage at tomb of Lincoln. Expect to be in Chicago Saturday or Sunday.

BREAD FAMINE CALLED "ALL BUNK"

In Mayor Thompson's office today Rudolph Kearn, bus. agent Bakers' and Confectioners' union, openly accused big bakeries of Chicago with being responsible for price-boosting in bakery goods. Charged stories of "threatened bread famine" were all bunk.

U. S. IN TRENCHES IN MONTH IS PLAN

Washington, April 30.—It will be only matter of few days before United States militia units now mobilized in this country are on their way to the European front and less than six weeks before they are actually embattled with Germans on the European front, if allies' urgent re-